Last night the Latino Democrats of the San Fernando Valley and the Latino Democrats of Los Angeles County endorsed Brad Sherman for re-election to Congress.

Both candidates sought the endorsement of the influential and active Latino Democrats. They voted to go with Sherman based upon his strong history of grassroots work in the Valley and proven support for the Latino community.

“Brad Sherman is a fighter for the issues Latino families care about – outstanding schools public, affordable options for college, good jobs and a fair immigration policy that gives hard working immigrants a path to citizenship,” stated Pedro Flores, Outreach Director for the Latino Democrats.

Democratic organizations that have endorsed have overwhelmingly endorsed Brad Sherman, including:

Democratic Party of the San Fernando Valley
Stonewall Democratic Club
Stonewall Young Democrats
Burbank Democratic Club
Malibu Democratic Club
Democratic Advocates for Disability Issues (DADI)
Kennedy Democrats of the San Fernando Valley

“Brad Sherman is the candidate of Democrats who live and vote in the San Fernando Valley,” stated Sherman’s consultant Parke Skelton. “His hard work and dedication to serving his community is why he is going to win this race. “
